VAIL, Colorado – Bravo! Vail Valley Music Festival has named six new members to its board of trustees. New to the board are Jennifer Bruno, Craig Foley, Michele Resnick, Susan Suggs, Marijke de Vink and Steve Virostek.

Terms for the new members began in October and last three years. There are 74 current members on Bravo!'s board of trustees.

Bruno moved to Vail in 1993 after graduating from the College of William and Mary. Along with husband, Luca, Bruno shares her time working on community events and managing their two clothing stores in Vail Village. She is also a member of the organizing committee for the 2015 World Alpine Ski Championships and has served on committees to benefit the Vail Valley Medical Center.

Foley was managing partner of Wickham Capital Partners, a private investment partnership he formed in 1994. He was a founding investor in Chancellor Capital Management (now Invesco Private Capital) and served as a member of its board of directors. Craig is a full-time resident of Cordillera and is vice chair of the board of Roundup River Ranch.

After living in Southern California for 20 years, Resnick and her husband, Jeff, moved to the Vail Valley in 2008. She has enjoyed playing an active role in volunteerism with the Vail Valley Medical Center and with the Bravo! Advisory Board.

A 40-year resident of Colorado, Susan Suggs and her husband, Steve, moved to the Vail Valley permanently in 2006. Suggs is active with The Vail Valley Steering Committee for the Women's Foundation of Colorado, the Vail Valley Foundation and the Star Dancing Gala committee for The Youth Foundation. She currently serves on the board of The First Tee of Eagle County and the advisory board of the Bravo! Vail Valley Music Festival.

Virostek is a founding partner in Triumph, a real estate company in Vail. Virostek is active in various charitable and community endeavors both in Colorado and in Washington, D.C. He serves on the board of directors of Big Brothers, Big Sisters of the National Capitol area. He serves on the development committee of the Vail Valley Foundation and on the sponsorship committee for the 2015 World Championships.

De Vink was born in the Netherlands and earned her Bachelor of Science at the University of Amsterdam. De Vink was on the boards of the Newark Museum and the Tennis Hall of Fame and still is on the board of the elementary school in Harlem, St. Anne.
