

Triumph Development continues its charity efforts during recession

Daily staff report

NEWSROOM@VAILDAILY.COM

VAIL — Triumph Development, developer of the recently completed Willows and proposed Marketplace, is continuing its philanthropic sponsorships despite the economic slump.

The company is a sponsor of several Vail Valley Foundation projects, the Triumph Winter Fest, the Snowshoe Shuffle and the Rotary Duck Race.

“Some developers just come into town, build and leave, but Triumph is building a reputation,” said Ron Byrne, owner of Ron Byrne & Associates Real Estate.

Triumph is a “cornerstone” sponsor of the Vail Valley Foundation. That group’s projects include the Audi Birds of Prey World Cup races, the Teva Mountain Games, the Vail International Dance Festival, the Gerald R. Ford Amphitheater, Bud Light Street Beat, Bud Light Hot Summer Nights and the American National Bank ShowDown Town concert series in Eagle.

“As cornerstone sponsors of the Vail Valley Foundation, Steve Virostek and Triumph Development make a significant impact on our ability to continue to provide the highest level of programming through athletics, education and culture to the entire Vail Valley community,” said Vail Valley Foundation President Ceil Folz.

For more information ,visit www.triumphdev.com.